Ben Lythe is a multi-instrumentalist, vocalist, composer, musical director, songwriter and producer. After spending time as a signed artist and touring/session musician, Ben is now a full-time songwriter/producer working with various artists from his recording studio in South West London.

His collaborations have amassed millions of streams and radio play including BBC Radio 1 with CATTY (Maybe All The Rumours Are True/Deep End). Ben has now established himself as a go-to writer/producer for emerging Alt Pop artists including; Grace Davies, Ellysse Mason, Darla Jade, Janet Devlin, SACHA, Beth McCarthy, Matthew Hall, Lucy Deakin, VLERA and more. His eagerly anticipated third single with CATTY, "I Don't Miss You (I Just Miss Your Mum)", out 18/11/22, will debut on BBC Radio 1's Future Pop.

RECENT WORK

Ben's recent releases have featured on Spotify's editorial playlists including; New Music Friday UK, New Pop UK, Fresh Finds Pop (#2), SALT (#3) as well as frequent plays on BBC Radio 1 and BBC Radio Wales.

As well as writing/producing for artists, Ben's vocals have featured on various dance tracks, most notably Justin Mylo's single "I Remember" (which was co-written by Ben and released on STMPD Records) and has surpassed a million streams on Apple Music/Spotify.

Ben is also a writer/producer for Sony Music, creating various tracks for Netflix, BBC, ITV and more.
